Subject: RE: SKAT - Following Up

Nick:

With respect to the questions below:

1. SKAT believes that having the court reporters remote is not an issue. To the extent the defendants want to arrange for the reporters to be in person, we will agree to pay one-quarter of the additional expense, for the deposition noticed by SKAT.
2. SKAT is unable to tender Ms. Zester and Mr. Jeppesen at this time. If that changes, we will let you know.
3. The timing of the proposed renewed motion under the Hague Convention is inconsistent with Judge Kaplan's orders denying the prior requests. Judge Kaplan denied those motions without prejudice to renewal after the completion of the 30(b)(6) witnesses and the depositions of Ms. Zester and Mr. Jeppesen. To the extent the defendants file a motion notwithstanding the Court's clear Order, we will oppose it on that ground. In addition, we will oppose such a motion on timeliness grounds in light of the request coming at the end of the discovery period. We will further oppose the motion with respect to the requests for depositions of Laurits Cramer, Kjeld Rasmussen, Rene Frahm Jørgensen, and Jens Sørensen on grounds of relevance, materiality and/or proportionality.

Regards,
Marc

CAUTION: This email was sent by someone outside of the Firm.

Hi Marc,

I am following up on a number of outstanding requests. Can you please let us know SKAT's response to the following:

1. The proposal to split the costs of a European-based court reporter and videographer for the June 3, 8, 9, and 11 depositions in Denmark;
2. The request for SKAT to tender Ms. Zester and Mr. Jeppesen for a deposition; and
3. Whether SKAT intends to oppose the Defendants' renewed motion under the Hague Convention.

Please let us know right away if you need further information on any of these topics.

Best,

Nick
